Protests reach Harrell's office

Nontenured faculty stage 'grade-in' at UI President Bruce Harrell's office with list of demands.

Talent to tell tales marks UI senior

Skylar Knutzen reflects on the time at the UI where he discovered a passion for storytelling.

Hawk Alert: Quite calling classroom phones

Since May 4, the Hawk Alert system no longer sends notifications to classroom telephones.

By TAMIE BEHRENS

University of Iowa senior Skylar Knutzen came to the UI to study physical education but instead discovered a passion for storytelling.

\"I didn't have a major when I first came to the University of Iowa; I think I signed up for a bunch of different majors, and when I didn't pick one, I thought I was just going to keep wandering around,\" he said.

At the time, Knutzen was learning around the idea of entering physical education after being impressed by a grade nine teacher.

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

Knutzen changed his major to advertising. After taking a video and design course, he decided to go to a school in Iowa City and start writing.

\"I remember sitting in a room with other writers where he made a short documentary. I was still in the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.

\"I asked them if they wanted to do a story together and they said yes,\" Knutzen said. \"I put together a short story and brought it to them and they wanted to do it.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"

\"I thought of going into physical education, but it was always a different program at the University of Iowa,\" said Knutzen. \"I thought that was probably more of a major for people who wanted to be coaches.\"

\"I think that was the turning point, he said, and he chose to pursue his newly discovered passion: storytelling.\"
The philosophy of suffering from minor to severe

Samuelson, a professor of philosophy at Kirkwood Community College, has written a book titled "The Deepest Human Life," which takes a different point of view, despite being inspired by the same source. Samuelson said, “The basic premise is we are a temporary existence.”

Outside of his work, he said, he has made it his mission to bring his own perspective to the military as a general practice psychologist. He feels that the military can be a great place for people to find healing, and he is looking forward to the next step. He is going to Italy this summer to work on his book, which he plans to take a break after the internship.

Samuelson also visited with Gotham, a communications firm in New York, where he worked on shoots for Spotify. He is going to Italy this summer, where he plans to take a break after the internship. After returning from Italy, he plans to continue working on his story about the Guna Taka community.

Samuelson is passionate about helping people and is focused on how we live our lives. He believes we can learn lessons on preparing and risk-taking. He is going to Italy this summer to work on his book, which he plans to take a break after the internship.

The last thing any of our students want to do is to actually be faced with suffering or the problem of proving no longer too many things. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it. It is definitely a feature that is on the system to be sent to people's phones automatically without anyone asking for it.
Beckoning voids, answering poetry

Behind the Music: Julien Baker’s narrative

Julien Baker is a singer-songwriter from Clinton, Iowa, known for her emotive and vulnerable lyrics. Her music is often described as indie folk and incorporates elements of country, folk, and rock. Baker is known for her ability to turn everyday experiences into poetic narratives, often with a focus on personal struggles, relationships, and the complexities of life. Her discography, including albums like “Sprained Ankle” and “The Turn Inwards,” demonstrates her growth and maturity as an artist. Baker has been praised for her honest and raw approach to songwriting, which often explores themes of pain, vulnerability, and the human experience.

From songwriting to touring, Julien Baker delves behind her music and reflects on her emerging music career.
COLUMN

Treating health as a right is fundamental to the American Dream

Problems in the health-care system are better understood by including stories, within our own. The medical-student commentaries that you read in the Daily Iowan are written by medical students at the University of Iowa. Through these commentaries, we hope to educate you on the healthcare system and provide information on different health-related topics.

Fetal health law that devalues medicine and women

UI Carver College of Medicine students and an alumna speak out against Iowa fetal-heartbeat law.

For most of our childhoods growing up in the Midwest, the Iowa Hawkeyes were our team. We were a proud state proud of its athletes and their accomplishments.

As a resident of Iowa, I understand the importance of health care and the need for it to be accessible to all. The Iowa fetal-heartbeat law is a step in the wrong direction, as it devalues medicine and women.

The medical profession is one of the most respected professions in the United States. It takes years of training and education to become a medical professional. This profession is not just about saving lives, but also about providing care to all patients. The Iowa fetal-heartbeat law takes away this right, as it mandates that doctors perform a procedure on women who do not want it.

We urge our representatives to oppose this dangerous legislation. Let doctors be the ones to decide what is best for their patients. Let women make their own decisions about their body. We must work together to ensure that women have access to the healthcare they need.
CONTINUED FROM 6A

athletes to perform in football.

The Hawkeye defense ate Buckeye downs in the same game.

The double-double machine

attracted (227), and dou-

While Gustafson unques-

Gustafson has competed with some of the top teams in the nation.

The Hawkeye defense and New Mexico State's Fredygard.

According to the U.S. Track & Field Coaches Association, the Hawkeyes have been the top 40 in the nation head-sadness, especially at the plate.

The Daily Iowan / DailyIowan.com / Thursday, May 10, 2018

SPORTS 5A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

FEBREZE

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A

Jackson continued from 4A
HAWKEYE UPDATES

Iowa to Run Ladies Football Academy on June 9

A football academy for girls ages 9-14 will be held at the University of Iowa's outdoor track on Saturday, June 9.

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

SOFTBALL HAWKEYES EARN BIG TEN HONORS

Desmond King and Waverly Queen were named to the All-Big Ten team.

HAWKEYE ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

Josh Jackson and Megan Gustafson earned praise throughout the year from The Daily Iowan sports desk.

DAILY IOWAN.COM
THURSDAY, MAY 10, 2018

JACKSON

The Daily Iowara Top Male Athlete

Megan Gustafson

The Daily Iowara Top Female Athlete

---

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Doocy

STAT OF THE DAY

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"It was too way too hard for a 9-hitter second baseman, so I ended up changing that. It was just distracting." — Iowa second baseman Mitchell Dooc...
Local musicians will be performing the music of Bob Dylan at the Englert Friday night. Artists include Brian Johannesen, David Zollo, Kevin “BF” Burt, Greg Brown, The Recliners, Elizabeth Moen, and Ingrid Streitz.

BY TROY ALDRICH | troy-aldrich@uiowa.edu

\[This Wheel's on Fire\] returns, just as fiery
WEEKEND EVENTS

TODAY 05.10

MUSIC
- Toot Toot Thursday, 6 p.m., Cafe's, 518 E. Washington
- When Particles Collide, 8 p.m., Yacht Club, 13 U. Park
- An Evening with Kevin Gordon, 8 p.m., Mill, 1125 S. Linn
- Tull Y is playing at FilmScene.

WEEKEND EVENTS

FRI 05.11

MUSIC
- Hawthorne Heights, 6 p.m., Cafe's
- This Week On Fri, 7 p.m., Englert
- The High Cleveland Trio, 8 p.m., Wildwood
-阅览电影：《Wallows》, 8:30 p.m., Englert
- The Death of Stalin, 9:10 p.m., FilmScene

SATURDAY 05.12

MUSIC
- The Machine, 7 p.m., Englert
- Camp Coffee Battle of the Bands, 7 p.m., Yacht Club
- Sam & Bear and Great Album Release, 8:30 p.m., Cafe's
- The Death of Stalin, 9:10 p.m., FilmScene

DANCE
- Up Youth Ballet and Community Dance School Spring Concert, 7:30 p.m., Englert Ave

WEEKEND EVENTS

SUNDAY 05.13

MUSIC
- Stick to Your Guns, 4:30 p.m., Blue Moose
- Singalong, Sharpthoof, Bain-Marie, 7 p.m., Cafe's

WEEKEND EVENTS

TULLY

Tully is a comedy-drama written by UI graduate Diablo Cody and directed by Jason Reitman. The duo is known for their Academy Award-winning indie film June (2007). Tull Y centers on a pregnant Mother named Marlo (Charlize Theron) as she takes care of autistic son Jonah and daughter Sarah. When her baby is born, affluent brother (Mark Duplass) hires a night nanny (Marlon Wayko) to watch over her children. Marlo and Tully begin to form an unbreakable bond. Tully is playing at FilmScene.

After a unexpected divorce, Deanna (Melissa McCarthy) drops her role as a stay-at-home mom and enrols in college. Known as Dee Rock on campus, Deanna becomes immersed in the college life. Tension begins to mount when Deanna infiltrates her daughter's (Molly Gordon) friend group. Life of the Party is directed by Ben Falcone, who made his directional debut in another McCarthy film, Tammy (2014).

ALBUM PICK

booberings & benderings, by Post Malone

After Post Malone teased his fans, saying his album would be released earlier this year, the audience was skeptical about the next release date. But he kept his word, and booberings & benderings was officially released on April 27, with the hit “Rockstar” featuring Ty Dolla $ign, and “Psycho.” Several tracks showcase other artists, including Niles Mingo, G-Eazy, YG, 21 Savage, and Swae Lee. Throughout the album, Malone sings songs about heartbreak and dealing with fame. Similar to “I Fall Apart,” a raspy ballad he released on his previous album, his song “Rich & Sad” has a fun rhythm with more melancholy lyrics about losing someone despite having money.

Song pick: “Rich & Sad”

LIT PICK

Killers of the Flower Moon, by David Grann

Killers of the Flower Moon documents the Osage Nation discovering oil on its land in Oklahoma during the 1920s. The people’s newly found affluence is a point of envy for neighboring people. A chain of mysterious and violent murders of Osages occurred on their nation land. The director of the recently founded FBL 1 Edgar Memon, assembled a team to uncover the man behind the murders. As a New York Times bestseller, Killers of the Flower Moon was a finalist for the National Book Award and was named a best book of the year by numerous media outlets, including the Wall Street Journal, Time, and Entertainment Weekly.

Joshua Bukliski
No pyramid schemes, but a Pharaoh

‘Saturday Night Live’ alum and standup comedian Jay Pharoah will visit the Englert this weekend.

By Elle Woods

THE DAILY IOWAN

EnglERT

PLAYLISTS

Contributed

The lineup consists of all Iowa-based musicians: Johanne sen, David Zollo, Kev- ren Burt, Greg Brown, and Ingrid Streitz. The Recliners, Elizabeth and the Shameless, The Little House Band, Burt, Mils, and Streitz formed this lineup earlier this aug ust in Zollo's living room in Des Moines. The lineup has also appeared in Des Moines as a whole. It performed live at the Englert on Sunday. The line-up was also announced on Facebook to promote the Englert performance. Zollo and his band have performed with many local musicians. He plans to play with local musicians on future engagements.

“I’m hitting this mark at a young age,” Zollo said. “It is a trait in someone who one wouldn’t usually see in Iowa. The large stage will be no problem for us. Our fans and we will be good for the college crowd. People are usually thrilled to see us on their favorite musician, songwriter, writer, or artist right at home with just having to drive to a mar- k like ‘Chicago’ or ‘Mad Men,’” High said in an interview with The Daily Iowan. “There’s also an extra cool factor in seeing these artists in a really inti- mate theater of just over 700, not a big arena with 10,000 other people. Plus, you just love seeing someone they’ve seen on TV.”

Jay Pharoah, an actor, impression- ist, and rapper well-known for his time as a cast member of "Saturday Night Live." His band, Middle Western, is still touring its first album, "Better Than Ever." His take on Dylan’s music projects he is working on "must be good," Burt told The Daily Iowan in a previous interview with the DI.

"It is one of those shows that the viewer has also noticed to be unique about the artist’s music for the sec- tion in which they poked fun at the kings, queens, and higher powers, said UI commun- ications Professor Kem- mick. "That exaggerated truth is what makes impressions so funny and enjoyable."

Zollo also plans to leave to perform a few tunes together and leave as a soloist to poke fun at someone. His music projects he is working on "must be good," Burt told The Daily Iowan in a previous interview with the DI.

"It is a trait in someone who one wouldn’t usually see in Iowa. The large stage will be no problem for us. Our fans and we will be good for the college crowd. People are usually thrilled to see us on their favorite musician, songwriter, writer, or artist right at home with just having to drive to a mar- k like ‘Chicago’ or ‘Mad Men,’” High said in an interview with The Daily Iowan. “There’s also an extra cool factor in seeing these artists in a really inti- mate theater of just over 700, not a big arena with 10,000 other people. Plus, you just love seeing someone they’ve seen on TV.”

Jay Pharoah, an actor, impression- ist, and rapper well-known for his time as a cast member of "Saturday Night Live." His band, Middle Western, is still touring its first album, "Better Than Ever." His take on Dylan’s music projects he is working on "must be good," Burt told The Daily Iowan in a previous interview with the DI.

"It is one of those shows that the viewer has also noticed to be unique about the artist’s music for the sec- tion in which they poked fun at the kings, queens, and higher powers, said UI commun- ications Professor Kem- mick. "That exaggerated truth is what makes impressions so funny and enjoyable."

Zollo also plans to leave to perform a few tunes together and leave as a soloist to poke fun at someone. His music projects he is working on "must be good," Burt told The Daily Iowan in a previous interview with the DI.

"It is one of those shows that the viewer has also noticed to be unique about the artist’s music for the sec- tion in which they poked fun at the kings, queens, and higher powers, said UI commun- ications Professor Kem- mick. "That exaggerated truth is what makes impressions so funny and enjoyable."

Zollo also plans to leave to perform a few tunes together and leave as a soloist to poke fun at someone. His music projects he is working on "must be good," Burt told The Daily Iowan in a previous interview with the DI.

"It is one of those shows that the viewer has also noticed to be unique about the artist’s music for the sec- tion in which they poked fun at the kings, queens, and higher powers, said UI commun- ications Professor Kem- mick. "That exaggerated truth is what makes impressions so funny and enjoyable."

Zollo also plans to leave to perform a few tunes together and leave as a soloist to poke fun at someone. His music projects he is working on "must be good," Burt told The Daily Iowan in a previous interview with the DI.

"It is one of those shows that the viewer has also noticed to be unique about the artist’s music for the sec-